Welcome Message

The whole world is still going through very difficult times due to the continuing pandemic. This has forced the entire world to embrace a "New Normal".

As clinicians, we need to keep updating ourselves and keep learning, unlearning and relearning in order to provide better healthcare to our patients. Since physical meetings are unsafe and not possible in the current scenario, the Executive Committees of SELSI and IHS decided to hold a joint annual conference on a virtual platform considering that academics should not take a back seat and the show must go on.

Taking a step forward from last year, these will be two hybrid centers this year - One in North India - Sharda Medical College, Greater Noida and one in South India - VPS Lakeshare Hospital, Kochi. Delegates desirous of attending physical conference can attend at any of these hybrid centers.

It will be a two days event from 8am to 5pm. There will be 2 parallel halls (One dedicated to SELSI and One to Indian Hernia Society) with Live Surgeries transmitted in full HD quality from various centres of excellence across India. In the 3rd hall there will be Orations, Video based guest lectures from invited international faculties, Free papers, Debates, Panel Discussions and Trade Exhibition (Everything like a physical conference except your physical presence).

Prof VK Bansal
(President SELSI)

Prof Pawanindra Lal
(President Indian Hernia Society)

Dr Amit Srivastava
(Secretary SELSI)

Dr Asuri Krishna
(Secretary Indian Hernia Society)
